Meet the new boss--

-same as the old boss-

You know, I keep waiting for my cynicism to be rewarded, here, and it's just not happening.

it's considered bad form
to go in without all
the handles pulled.

Creepy, isn't it?

That was surprisingly close to gloat-free.

And yes, the vanilla caramel latte I owe you is on your desk.

Don't feel bad. Smart money would never have gone for somebody experienced and qualified. ;-)

Beside that, you won the last bet. And the pool's still open on Secretary of State.

If he ever finds out about Wonder Woman, he's going to hire her for Press Secretary. We'd hate that.

Still not thrilled at his stance on the 2nd Amendment. And his work defending Chiquita Bananas is less than heartening. But yeah, he looks better than many of the others that could have gone in there.

A man who will own up to a mistake is a rare thing in this town.

I like to think that in their next lives, banana company executives and major stockholders will be reborn as chocolate plantation workers.

I work for the government, and I used to work with the Japanese, I am familiar with face saving grin

And yeah, some karma would be good. Although the tears of slave children add that special something to my chocolate milk.
